2. Read 1 Corinthians 8:1-13. According to the passage what does knowledge do, and in the context of the Christian life why is all knowledge not wrong? Describe the type of knowledge that you have seen that puffs some people up?

3. Describe verses 2 and 3 in your own words.

9. According to 1 Cor. 8:9-13, how does a stronger Christian show love to a weaker Christian?

GO

10. Do you think you have a weak conscience in some area of behavior or lifestyle? If you do, what can you do to become stronger in your walk with Christ?

11. What are some activities that might cause a weaker Christian to stumble, and how can you help others live a balanced Christian life from being either too “legalistic” or claiming to have “freedom in Christ” to do anything they desire?

12. How do you know when or if some area of Christian freedom you enjoy is, or could be a stumbling block to a weaker Christian?
